VPK

Spring has sprung and like a butterfly escaping it's chrysalis, your children have gained their wings to fly into kindergarten. They have been practicing very hard and are very excited to be graduating on May 26th.

During the month of March and into April we have watched caterpillars form a chrysalis and then turn into butterflies.
We have a small garden, in it we have planted carrots, corn, grass, and string beans. You may also remember in November we took our Halloween pumpkin and put soil in it. We then planted it in the ground and removed the shell of the pumpkin.
The children have been excited because a small pumpkin is now growing!

Please watch our parent door for info about our Easter Bonnet parade. VPK also has a Spring vacation April 10th to April 17th. There is no VPK but wrap-around care is available except for April 14th Wellington is closed.
As always if you have any questions, please do not hesitate to ask.

Happy Easter!
Love your VPK Teachers!
Ms. Cindy & Ms. Linda
