July 2017 Newsletter

Administrator's News....

Dear Parents,

July is here and the sun is out! Just a reminder to properly dress your child in shorts and t-shirts. Jeans or pants are way too hot for this time of year. Every age group has their own weekly water play and Kona Ice to keep them cool. Remember to bring an extra set of clothes and water shoes for playing in the water! Be sure to label all items so everything returns back home to you. July will be fun with our red, white and blast off activities. We will be celebrating USA with Olympics, camping and Christmas in July.

Let's have some fun with all the stars and stripes.
